April General Meeting Presentation by Phil Gilchrist, Director, Anton Art Center

Phil will tell us all about the Center, its history, goals, mission.

Anton Group Show "Weather (climate, atmosphere, storms, wind, rain, etc.)"

Because of our annual elections and other additions to the May newsletter the "Weather" entry form is included in this newsletter. Receiving is Wed. June 6, 11 - 5. Exhibit dates Are June 9 to July 13. Reception is June 9 and we assigned cheese and crackers. Pick up artwork July 14, 10 - 5.

What's Up This Summer?

Warren Tri-County Fine Arts is invited to exhibit at the Farmer's Market at Warren City Hall on the "Second Sundays" of the months it is open, May - Oct. 2018, 10 am to 3 pm. We have a theme planned for each month along with demos. There will be a one-day paint out with an exhibit of the artwork the following month. We will wrap up our Second Sundays in October with a fall themed exhibit and a cider and donut meet and greet. More information to come. Please come join the group.

Member News to the Editor

A note from long-time member Henry Friedman. Recently he was the feature story on Channel 2 News. He was a guest speaker at the Holocaust Memorial Center in honor of Holocaust Remembrance Day. Because his hope is that the lessons do not fade away in time, he spoke of his experiences and survival in seven extermination camps. Some of his sculptures are on permanent display at the center in Farmington Hills. Henry always brought his sculpture and helped meet and greet when we exhibited on the west side.
