May General Meeting Presentation:

Victoria Repen will discuss proper preparation of artwork for display.

Plus: Judging for the Prestige Show.

A new approach to the Prestige Show this year. Bring one or two of your latest work to the May meeting, framed for hanging along with your entry form to the same hall we hung art for the 50th Anniversary exhibit. Entry form is attached. Jurying will take place during the meeting. Any unaccepted artwork will be set aside for pick up following the meeting. Awards will still be announced at the June Prestige Show and Anniversary meeting. The Prestige Show take-down will occur on August 14th.

Board positions for June.

Please take a look at the Board listing on the reverse side of this newsletter and let any Board member know you would like to run for an office. Currently your Board is run by members in their position for a very long time. New ideas, new goals, new dynamics would be welcome.

What's Up This Summer?

Warren Tri-County Fine Arts is invited to exhibit at the Farmer's Market at Warren City Hall on the "Second Sundays" of the months it is open, May – Oct. 2018, 10 am to 3 pm. Please see the agenda for the Sundays this summer at the bottom of the April meeting minutes included. The more the merrier, please come join the group in the Pavilion by the fountain at City Hall.
