How It Works: Dues

Membership Chairperson, Victoria Repen should receive your WTCFA membership dues. She retains your information, gives the funds to Treasurer, Gloria Dunn, and advises Paula Wild of your information which is then added to a computer membership list to be published on the website for members only.

These funds pay our rent on the art room at the Community Center, pay for the demos or speakers we have at the general meetings, pay judges at our exhibits, plus operating costs. This is why you are asked for dues each year.

However, if you have been a dues paying member for ten years and have reached your 80th birthday, you can become a Senior Honors member. Talk to any Board member.

Art washes away from the soul the dust of everyday life.

Minutes of the General Meeting September 11, 2018

Warren Tri-County Fine Art Inc.

Date & Time:

09/11/2018 @ 6:40 pm called by President Clare Wolfe

Attendance: Apx 26 members.

President Report (Clare Wolfe):

Good evening and welcome to the September 2018 General Meeting. I hope everyone had a warm and wonderful summer. I can't believe it's already over. A few interesting things happened over the summer: first and best was our participation at the WTCFA 2nd Sundays at the Warren Farmers Market. It has been a lot of fun. Each month was a different theme. August theme was a paint-out (a plein air event) at the market. We had some non-members join us and hopefully they will join our group. This past Sunday, Henry Bowman awarded ribbons to the artist that brought their painting from the paint-out. Henry awarded 5 ribbons. The paintings are hanging in the back hallway. October 14th is the final Sunday and the theme is Farewell to the Market with a cider and donut Meet & Greet. Please bring any of your fall themed paintings to display/sell at the market. Henry enjoyed having us there so much that he has already invited us for next year and hopes to expand the program.

1. I want to give a special thanks to Paula for arranging this and also to Jennifer Kafoury who coordinated the activities. Great job Ladies!
2. Also thanks to a discussion from Joe Samulowicz, we have a new site to exhibit our work. A few of us visited Hometown Heroes Café over the summer and we decided that the site would be a good location for us to display. We will set up the Walker System and start rotating every 2 months as soon as possible. The Café is located on Van Dyke just North of 10 Mile in the shopping Strip. We need someone to coordinate this location. Please see Clare Wolfe if you are interested.
